

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

EducT
758.92
328

THE CHILDREN'S PRIMER
Cyr

GINN & COMPANY PUBLISHERS

DUPPLICATE
EXCHANGED

Educ T 758.92.328

Harvard College
Library

By Exchange

3 2044 097 054 001

THE CHILDREN'S PRIMER

BY

MISS ELLEN M. CYR

AUTHOR OF THE INTERSTATE PRIMER, ETC.

BOSTON, U.S.A.

GINN & COMPANY, PUBLISHERS

1892

Edue T 758.92.228

HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY
BY EXCHANGE FROM NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY
FEB 26 1932

COPYRIGHT, 1891,
BY ELLEN M. CYR.
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

TYPOGRAPHY BY J. S. CUSHING & Co., BOSTON, U.S.A.
PRESSWORK BY GINN & COMPANY, BOSTON, U.S.A.

TO THE TEACHERS OF THE CHILDREN.

It is of the utmost importance that the earliest steps in reading should be taken in the right direction. The habit of throwing expression into the sentences from the very first is invaluable; and this is impossible where the vocabulary is large. With this fact in mind, I have made my lessons as simple as possible; the average number of new words being about two and one-quarter to each page.

"To let the new life in, we know Desire must ope the portal."

The subjects of the lessons have been chosen with an especial view to interesting the little ones so that their expression will come naturally and spontaneously.

The wise teacher will weave an interest about the earliest lessons, filling them with thought and meaning of which the printed text shall be but a suggestion. A question here and there, a drawing out of the memory and imagination, will fill the pupil with a real interest in what he is reading; and the eager child nature will exult in the knowledge he has acquired, and pressing forward to what lies beyond will throw life and meaning into the simplest sentences.

In connection with this book I have prepared a complete set of Practice Sentences. These consist of fifty envelopes, each containing twenty sentences, introducing and giving practice on the new words in

DUPPLICATE
EXCHANGED

Educ T 758.92.328

Harvard College Library

By Exchange

3 2044 097 054 001

M̄y döll.

My doll. See my doll.

My mamma. See my mamma.

My baby doll.

See my baby doll.

kitty can I

See my kitty.

I can see my kitty.

Mamma can see my kitty.

My kitty can see.

My kitty can see baby.

REVIEW.

I can see.

I can see kitty.

I can see my doll.

Kitty can see baby.

I can see mamma.

I can see baby.

Mamma can see.

Mamma can see my doll.

Mamma can see kitty.

Baby can see mamma.

Baby can see kitty.

Kitty can see mamma.

Kitty can see my doll.

Can baby see my doll?

Baby can see my doll.

See my doll, baby.

I hăve a bōōk a slāte

I have a slate.

I have a book.

I have a kitty.

See my book.

See my slate.

Mamma can see my slate.

Mamma can see my book.

See my slate, baby.

See my book, baby.

I have a doll.

Baby can see my doll.

Baby can see my book.

Baby can see my slate.

Kitty can see my book.

Can kitty see baby?

Kitty can see baby.

Can baby see kitty?

Baby can see kitty.

Can baby see my slate?

Baby can see my slate.

I have my slate.

I like Willie to plāy hās

I can see Willie.

Willie has a kitty.

Willie has a book.

I have a book.

Mamma has a book.

Baby has a book.
Baby can see Willie.
I like Willie.
I like to play.
I like my book.
I like to see kitty play.
Baby can play.
Willie can play.

you

Can you see Willie?
Can you see kitty?
Can you see a book?
Can you play?
Can you see kitty play?

REVIEW.

Baby has my slate.
 See my slate, mamma.
 See Willie's book.
 I have a book.
 I have my slate.
 See my book, baby.
 Willie has a kitty.
 Can you see kitty play?
 I like kitty.
 I like to play.
 Can you see baby?
 Yes, I can see baby.
 Baby can see mamma.
 I like baby.
 I like kitty.
 Mamma, see kitty play.
 I like you, kitty.

birds the nest fly

I can see a nest.

I can see the birds.

Can you see the nest? Yes.

Can you see the birds? Yes.

I have a bird.

My bird can fly.

See the nest.

Papa tree pretty is in Papa has a pretty tree.

Look at the pretty tree.

See the birds in the tree.

A nest is in the tree.

The nest is pretty.

Can you see the nest?

Oh, you pretty little birds!

I like to see you fly.

Fly to your nest.

See the birds fly, papa.

Oh rŭn mīce lĭtle

Oh, see the little mice!
 Can you see the little mice? Yes.
 The little mice have a nest.
 Can you see the nest? Yes.
 The little mice can run.
 I can run. Can you run? Yes.
 I like the little mice.

See the mice play.
I like to see you, little mice.

mouse

catch

A little mouse can run.
See the mouse, kitty.
Kitty can see the mouse.
Kitty can catch the mouse.
Run, little mouse.
Kitty can run.
Kitty can catch you.
Kitty can catch a bird.
Have you a nest, little mouse?
Run to your nest.
I like you, little mouse.
I like to see you play.
Run, run, little mouse.
Run to your mamma.

ōn bĭg rĭde horse ĩs

Papa has a big horse.

The horse can run.

Papa can ride on the horse.

I like to see papa ride.

Willie can ride on a horse.

Willie has a little horse.
See Willie's horse.
I like Willie's horse.
Willie's horse can run.
Willie's horse is little.
Papa's horse is big.
Willie is little.
Papa is big.
Can you ride on a horse?
I can ride on papa's horse.
I like to ride on Willie's horse.
Willie's horse likes Willie.
Papa's horse likes Willie.
Baby likes papa's horse.

Teach the formation of the possessive by adding 's.

Mamma

Mamma's

baby baby's kitty kitty's feed milk cow John gives

Papa has a cow.

See the pretty cow, baby.

The cow gives milk.

I like milk.

I give milk to kitty.

I can feed the cow.

You may feed the cow, baby.

See baby feed the cow.
See John milk the cow.
I like to see you milk, John.
Papa can milk the cow.
I like to see papa milk the cow.
I can feed papa's horse.
The cow can see baby.
The cow likes baby.
Baby likes to feed the cow.
I like the pretty cow.

Papa has a — cow.
I have a — book.
Willie has a — horse.
Mamma has a — baby.
Kitty can see a — mouse.
I like my — slate.
Oh, see the — bird!

Children supply the adjective.

REVIEW.

Willie, can you milk a cow?

Yes, I can milk a cow.

I can ride on a horse.

I can feed the horse.

See kitty in the tree.

A little bird is in the tree.

The little bird can see kitty.

The little bird can fly.

The bird has a pretty nest.

The nest is in the big tree.

The bird is on the eggs.

I can feed the pretty bird.

I give milk to kitty.

See the little mouse, kitty.

Run, little mouse.

See the little mouse, baby.

See kitty run.

Alice gō dō ănd

Alice and I go to school.

Alice is little. I am big.

See my slate.

Alice has a book and slate.

I like to go to school.

Do you see my school?

It is a little school.

Do you go to a little school?

sews mē lōok for

Can you sew, Alice?

Yes, I can sew a little.

I sew for my doll.

Mamma sews for me.

Mamma sews for baby.

I can sew for mamma.

I like to sew.

Do you sew in school, Alice?

Yes, I do sew in school.

Look at my doll.

Do you see my doll?

Look at me. See me sew.

whīte

dōve

Grāce

ŭp

wīsh

īt

I have a pretty white dove.

Do you wish to see my dove?

Yes, I wish to see it.
Look up in the tree.
Oh yes, I see it.
It is a pretty dove.
See it fly, Grace.
Fly to me, pretty dove.
See baby look at the dove.
Do you wish to feed the dove?
You may feed it.
See the dove fly to baby.
My white dove has a nest.
Fly to your nest, pretty dove.

Willie has a little horse.
Alice has a pretty doll.
Grace has a white dove.
Papa has a big cow.
I have a little kitty.

Where gět dīd nōt gāve

Where did you get your book?

It is not my book.

It is Willie's book.

Where did Willie get it?

Papa gave it to Willie.

I have a big doll.

Papa did not give me my doll.

Mamma gave it to me.

I can look at Willie's book.

I have a big slate.

Do you wish to see it?

I can not get it.

It is at school.

See my doll.

Can my doll see the book?

The doll can not see the book.

Alice has a big book.

Where is your book, Alice?

I wish to see it.

I can get it for you.

Willie gave my book to me.

I like to look at the book.

Have you a book, Grace?

I have a pretty book.

Where is your book?

Mamma has my book.

REVIEW.

want with

Grace has a pretty white dove.

I like to feed it.

I want a pretty dove, mamma.

You have a big doll, Kitty.

My doll can not play.

You can play with Willie.

Yes, I like to play with Willie.

Willie has a little white kitty.

Oh, I like a little kitty.

I can play with the kitty.

I wish to see the kitty.

Oh, you pretty little kitty!

Do not run.

I will give you milk.

I can sew for my doll.

I can play with my kitty.

Minnīe bōat will ānd too hē

See my papa.

He has a big boat.

I wish to ride in it.

Papa, will you give me a ride in your boat?

Yes, Minnie, I will.

Run in and get mamma and baby.

Oh mamma, papa wants you!

He will give you a ride.

Baby may go, too.

Do you wish to go, baby?

Do you like to ride in the boat?

See baby run to the boat.

My papa has a b--t.

I go to sch--l.

A little k-tty can run.

A little b-rd can fly.

Have you a sl-te?

My kitty likes m-lk.

I like to see kitty pl-y.

Oh, see the pretty n-st.

I will feed the d-ve.

The dove can fly to b-by.

See Willie feed the h-rse.

Alice has a pretty d-ll.

squirrel thăt nō wē nŭt

Oh, you big squirrel!

Where did you get that nut?

I got it on the tree.

We want that nut.

No, no, you can not have my nut.

I want it for my baby squirrel.

You can get a nut on the tree.

Run up the tree and get a nut.

Māy gärden

lily rōse

I have a little garden.
May gave me a white lily.
I have a rose, too.

It is in my garden.
 Have you a garden? Yes.
 Have you a lily in it?
 No, I have a rose in my garden.
 Minnie gave me my rose.
 Where did you get your rose?
 Papa gave my rose to me.
 He has a big garden.
 My papa has a big garden, too.
 May I see it? Oh yes.

ī	ǎ	ē
in	ăn	mē
it	căn	sēē is	hăș	trēē
lily	ănd	fēēd

gōing

äre whät six

What are you going to do, John?

I am going to get the cows.

May I go, too?

Oh yes, you may.

I like the pretty cows.

Papa has six cows.

I see the six cows.

Are you going to feed the cows,
John?

Oh no, I am going to milk the cows.

I will feed you, pretty cows.

What do you like?

I see what you like.

I will get it for you.

Where is the white cow going?

Do not run, my pretty cow.

John is going to milk you.

I like your white milk.

I will feed you.

I wish to milk the cow, John.

You may milk the white cow.

I like the white cow.

Papa gave the white cow to me.

think lēt isn't some pāil

What is it mamma wants me to do?

Let me think.

Is it to feed my dove?

No, it isn't to feed my dove.

Is it to get some nuts for Ned's squirrel?

No, it isn't that.

Is it to get some milk for the baby?

Yes, I think it is to get some milk.

I think John is going to milk.

He has a big pail.

I will run and get my little pail.

Baby may have some milk.

I will let kitty have some milk, too.

I see baby in the garden.

Do you want some milk, baby?

I will get some milk for you.

What have you for me?

You may get a rose for me.

tīme ām īs Gōod-bȳe bē

Good-bye, mamma.

It is time to go to school.

I have my books.

Where is your slate, May?

It is at school, mamma.
Do not run. You will be in time.
I am going for Alice.
Alice will be in the garden.
I see you, Alice.
I am going. Good-bye, mamma.

Alice! Alice! are you going to school?
Oh yes, May, I am.
Is it time to go?
I think it is.
I will run in and get my books.
Look at my pretty white rose.
Isn't it pretty?
You may have it, May.
I want you to see this little nest.
See the little birds in it.

Grändmä been hēr coming

I have been to see grandma.

She gave me a lily to give to mamma.

It is a pretty white lily.

I like to go to see grandma.

I have been in the garden.

She has a pretty garden.
 I like to play in her garden.
 Grandma is going to see mamma.
 Grandma! Grandma! Where are you?
 Are you coming, grandma?
 Yes, I think she is coming.
 I am glad she is coming.
 I want her to see Ned's squirrel.

c — ăn	b — ăd	b — őd
f — ăn	h — ăd	f — őd
m — ăn	l — ăd	l — őd
p — ăn	m — ăd	N — őd
r — ăn	s — ăd	r — őd
t — ăn	p — ăd	w — őd

Let the children discover the new words for themselves.

REVIEW.

box

What is in your box, May?
You may look in and see.
Oh, what a pretty rose!
Yes; and see the lily.
I got the rose in my garden.
Papa and I got the lily.
Where is Ned going?
He is going to feed the squirrel.
I think it is time to feed my dove.
Isn't my dove pretty?
Papa gave Ned a little boat.
He gave baby a doll.
He gave me a pretty box.
The lily and rose are for grandma.
I think she will like them.
Oh yes, she will like them.

awāy to-dāy Boston shē

I am not going to school to-day.
I am going to Boston with mamma.

I like to go away with mamma.

Is Willie going, too?

No, Willie is not going to-day.

He is going to ride with papa.

I like to ride to Boston.

I am going to get a pretty basket for you.

Oh, thank you, May.

I want a pretty basket for school.

Is baby going away with you?

Oh no, she is too little.

She is going to see grandma.

Grandma has a big doll for her.

She will play in the garden.

Some day she will go to Boston.

She likes to go to see grandma.

I think it is time to go.

I see mamma coming.

I will run to her.

căp hăt shě gőt

Look at my white cap.
 Grandma gave it to me.
 She got it in Boston.
 John has a cap, too.
 It is not like my cap.
 It is not a white cap.

I have a pretty hat for my doll.

Do you wish to see my doll?

I will get her for you.

She is up in my tree.

My tree is in the garden.

The birds have a nest in my tree.

I must go and feed them.

I am going into the garden.

I wish to get a lily for grandma.

I got a pretty rose for mamma.

Oh, I see you, John!

You are up in that tree.

Will you give me my doll?

Where is her white hat?

Do you see it in the tree?

I see it. I can get it.

I think my doll is pretty.

I like to sew for her.

Lūlū swim gōld-fīsh fīns

Lulu has a pretty fish.

It is a gold-fish.

It has fins.

Look at the fins.

It can swim with its fins.

Lulu likes to feed it.

It will swim to her.

Do you like to swim, little fish?

My dog likes to swim.

Swim to me, little fish.

I like to see your pretty fins go.

Ännä hōpe didn't saw cǎtch

Anna, did you see kitty run?

Yes, she saw a little mouse.

I hope she didn't catch it.

No, she didn't catch it.

I hope kitty will not catch the little mouse.

I want the mouse to get away.

I will give kitty some milk.

Will you get some milk for me,
Anna?

Come away, kitty. You can not have the little mouse.

Run to your mamma, little mouse.

I hope kitty will not get you.

Oh, kitty! kitty!

You must not catch the little mouse.

The little mouse likes to play.

I like the little mouse.

I play with you.

I give you milk.

Anna has some milk for you.

Do not catch the little mouse.

It is time for papa to come.

I must run to see him.

house put thrēe

Papa put a bird's house in the tree.

Two little birds have a nest in it.

You can not see the bird's house.

You can see the pretty birds.

They have three baby birds.

I go out to see them.

The birds like me.

I feed them.

I hope kitty will not catch them.

She can not get into the bird's house.

She is too big.

The big birds do not like her.

She must not run up the tree.

I will put her in the house.

Oh, you pretty little birds!

Fly to your nest.

Your little birds want you.

I like to see you feed them.

What a pretty tree that is!

I saw papa make the bird's house.

The baby birds are not pretty.

did not didn't_o didn't has not hasn't_o hasn't is not isn't_o isn't

Līōn dōg

nāme Fränk

bäck hīs

I am a big dog.
My name is Lion.
Do you see Frank?
I am his dog.
I give him rides.

He can ride on my back.

I can run. I can swim, too.

Frank likes me.

His kitty will not play with me.

Her name is Minnie.

You may ride on my back, Minnie.

Do not run up in the tree.

I am not a lion.

Lion is my name.

Do you like big dogs?

Yes, and I like little dogs.

REVIEW.

See my big dog, Alice!

His name is Lion.

Can you come and play with me?

No, Frank, I must go into the house.

Mamma will want me.
She is going away to-day.
She is going to Boston.
Grandma is coming to be with baby and me.
I like to have grandma in the house.
She will play with me.
She likes baby. Baby likes her.

What can I do for you, mamma?
You may get my hat for me.
I want that big box, too.
You may put it with the hat.
Do you see grandma coming?
Oh yes, I see her in the garden.
Baby is with her now.
She had a ride on Lion's back.

woods

ask picnic

told

Jamie

wē

Oh, Jamie, can you go on a picnic with me?

Mamma told me to ask you.

She told me to ask Frank, too.

Where are you going for the picnic?

We are going to the woods.
Oh, I like to go to the woods.
I hope you can go.
Run in and ask your mamma.
Papa will give us a ride in his boat.

I like to go in a boat.
Papa is going to catch some fish.
Mamma has a big basket for us.
You will like what is in it.
We will run in and ask mamma.

Mamma, may we go with Lulu?
She is going on a picnic.
Her papa is going, too.
Yes, Jamie, you may go.
Where will the picnic be?
It will be in the woods.

was flowers cake good found Did you have a good time in the woods?

Yes, mamma, we did.
 We saw some pretty flowers.
 May has some in her basket.
 We found some nuts.
 I saw a little squirrel.

Frank found a pretty nest.

The nest was in a tree.

A bird was on it.

I saw her fly away.

I found two eggs in the nest.

Did the baby have a good time,
mamma?

Yes, baby and kitty had a picnic,
too.

They had some milk and cake in the garden.

I gave them some cake.

I put it in a little basket.

Baby gave some to the birds.

Did kitty have some cake?

No, kitty did not want it.

She did want to catch a bird.

I found her in the tree.

all cōld soon South hēre shall

Oh, see all the birds!
Where are they going, mamma?
They are going to the South.
It will be cold here pretty soon.

Soon we shall have no flowers.

The birds must fly away.

It is not cold in the South.

Will they ever come back here,
mamma?

Oh yes, they will fly back.

The flowers will come.

The birds will all come, too.

Will my little dove fly South?

Oh no, your dove will not go.

I must have a house for my dove.

I want you here, little dove.

Good-bye, dear little birds.

Did you come to say "Good-bye" to me?

I wish to go South with you.

Fly back to me soon, pretty birds.

I shall wish to see you.

āsleēp dēar slēep wāke

See my dear little doll.

She is asleep.

I put her to sleep.

Isn't she a dear little doll?

I think she is.

It is time for her to wake up now.

I wish to play with her.

Wake up, my little doll!
 I wish to go out to play.
 I will get your pretty cap.
 We will go to see Lulu.
 I wish to see her gold fish.
 I like to see it swim.
 Do you wish to go with me?
 Lulu has a pretty play house.
 She has a pretty doll, too.
 We will put you in the play house.
 You may sleep in the bed.
 The gold fish likes Lulu.
 It will swim to her.

ōld	f ōld	ōld
g ōld	s ōld	b ōld
t ōld	c ōld	h ōld

love come bed said

See this dear baby.

She is asleep.

Do not wake her.

I said, "Come, baby, it is time to go to bed.

Mamma wants you now.

She will put you to sleep.

The little birds are asleep.

The pretty flowers are asleep.

You must go to sleep, too.

Come with me, baby dear.
Dolly will go to bed, too.
See your pretty white bed.
See dolly in her bed.
Do not wake up, dolly.
Baby is coming to bed.
Go to sleep, baby dear.”
She has had a good sleep.
She will wake up soon.
I love to look at her.
We love you, baby dear.
She loves to play with me.
She wants to go to school with me.
She is too little to go to school.
Some day she may go.
I want her to play with me.
Come, baby, it is time to wake up.

rōsēs

běst pīck sīck

glād

Oh, you pretty roses!
Did you wake up for me?
May I pick you, pretty roses?

Dear grandma is sick.

She can not come out to see you.

I wish to take you to her.

Mamma told me to pick her some flowers.

I like you best of all.

I want grandma to have the best flowers.

I think you are glad to come.

She will be glad to have you.

I will put you where she can look at you.

You shall say “Good morning” to her.

I shall pick lilies for mamma.

Mamma likes lilies best of all.

I love all the pretty flowers.

I love to give them away, too.

SOMETHING TO ANSWER.

hělp dīshěs wash

1. Did you help your mamma to-day?
2. What did you do for her?
3. What can you do to help her?
4. Can you wash the dishes?
5. Can you get wood for her?
6. What can you do to help papa?
7. What can you do for baby?

hasn't any girl

See this little girl.
 She hasn't any mamma.
 What can I do for her?
 She may have my kitten.
 I think she will like it.
 You dear little girl!
 Come and see my mamma.
 She will be good to you.
 Have you a little kitty?

I have two of them.
 I will give you the little one.
 Have you any milk for her?
 She will play with you.
 She will get on your bed and wake you.
 Isn't she a dear little kitty?

drink cŭp saucer sŭch out
 I love Alice. She is good to me.
 She gave me my pretty kitty.

She gave it to me in the basket.

It is a dear little kitty.

It will drink milk.

I give it milk in a saucer.

I drink out of a cup.

Kitty drinks out of a saucer.

I love to see kitty play.

Do not catch my bird.

I must put you to bed, kitty.

You may sleep in the basket.

No, you must not get out.

Be a good little kitty.

Do not get out of the basket.

You shall get out pretty soon.

You are such a dear little kitty!

I hope you will not catch birds.

I want you to love little birds.

I want you to love me, too.

ducks cōrn fīnd poor

We are Ned's ducks.
 He did not feed us to-day.
 We want some corn to eat.
 We are going to find Ned.
 I hope we shall find Ned soon.
 His papa will give us some corn.
 Ned! Ned! where are you?
 Do you see Ned any where?
 Come and feed your ducks.
 It is too cold for us to go and swim.

Give us some corn, and we will go home.

It is pretty cold to-day.

It is not cold in the barn.

I see Ned coming to feed us.

My poor little ducks!

You did find me, didn't you?

I have been away all day.

I told John to feed you.

Poor little ducks, you are cold.

Come back to the barn.

I will get some corn for you.

You shall have all you want.

You shall have a drink, too.

Some day you shall have a swim.

bĭrthdāy pārtŭ mādē hāvĭng

It is my birthday to-day.

I am having a party.

Frank, Jamie, Gracie, and Minnie have come to my party.

Do you see them?

Mamma made me a birthday cake.

She made it for my party.

We have had a good play.

Do you see the dolls?

They have come to the party, too.

My little dog wants to come.

I must give him some cake.

Poor little dog, you may have some cake.

You are a good little dog.

You may have a party some day.

Lion shall come to it.

Mamma is going to get some milk for us.

I like a party in the garden.

have haveing

having come comeing coming love loveing loving

Jěnniě Rōvēr Jŭmbō our ůs
 Jennie and I are having a party.
 Rover and Jumbo have come to our party.

I am going to feed Rover.

Jumbo can't eat.

See our new dishes.

Grandma got them for us.

Do you like our party, Rover?

Mamma is going to give us some cake.

Do not eat our cake, Rover.

I will give you some.

Jumbo may have all the cake he can eat.

We will eat it for you, Jumbo.

Cake is good for us.

Are you having a good time, Rover?

We are having a good time.

I was at Alice's party.

It was her birthday party.

It is not my birthday to-day.

It is not Jennie's birthday.

We play it is Rover's birthday.

See him look at me.

Do you like the party, Rover?

I think you do like it.

Jumbo shall have a party some day.

plātes

tāble tāke

tēa-pōt

bōx

water

1. You may get me the big box.
2. You may look into it.
3. What do you see in it?
4. You may take out the plates.
5. You may put them on the table.
6. You may put the cups on the table.
7. You may take out the tea-pot.
8. You may get some water in it.
9. You may put the tea-pot on the table.
10. You may put some water in the cups.

11. You may put some cake on the plates.
12. You may give some one a cup of water.
13. You may drink a cup of water.
14. You may put the plates away.
15. You may put the cups away.
16. You may put the tea-pot away.
17. You may put the box away.

To be read silently and the direction obeyed. A child's tea-set is required for this lesson.

s ěll

t ěll

d ěll

f ěll

c ěll

y ěll

b ěll

N ěll

w ěll

breakfast had Annie gone

I can't go out to play now.

I must eat my breakfast.

Has Annie had her breakfast?

Yes, and she is out at play.

You must run out to her.

Jamie gave the ducks some breakfast.

Where is Jamie now?

He has gone to school.

Minnie has gone to school, too.

Oh dear, I want to go to school.

May I go to school, mamma?

Yes, when you are a big girl.

I want you with me now.

Eat your breakfast, little girl.

Annie is in the garden.

She wants you to play.

Take your poor doll with you.

You had a good sleep.

Now you can have a good play.

I want you to get some flowers.

You may put them in my basket.

May I pick some for grandma?

Annie gives roses to her grandma.

I don't think we have any roses.

Jamie has some baby ducks.

Oh, mamma! where are they?

They are in the barn.

You and Annie may find them.

REVIEW.

Where did you get the pretty dishes?

Mamma gave them to me on my birthday.

See the pretty little tea-pot.

I will get you milk in it.

Will you take it in a little cup?

I will give you some of my birthday cake?

I will put some on a little plate
for you.

Have a cup of cold water.

I will wash my little dishes now.

Do you wish to help me?

I will wash the cups, and you may wash the plates.

I help mamma wash the dishes.

färm four hëns Grändpä

My grandpa has a big farm.

I like to go to see him.

He has four cows and two horses.

I ride on the horses.

I go for the cows.

I help grandpa milk.

He has some hens and ducks.

The ducks are so pretty.

I like to feed the hens.

The hens like me, too.
Grandpa lets me feed them.
See them run to me.
Look at the hen-house.
Do you see the woods?
I like to go into the woods.
One hen has a nest in the barn.
I found it one day.
She had some eggs in it.
I put the eggs in my cap.
Grandma was glad to have them.
She made a little cake for me.
I gave some to the hen.
That was to thank her for the eggs.
Do you see her look at me?
She thinks I have some corn for her.

Jill kēep nāme Jäck

This hen likes me.

Do you see where she is?

Grandpa gave her to me.

Her name is Jill.

I am going to keep her.

I have made a house for her.

Grandpa gave me the little dog,
too.

His name is Jack.

Come, Jack; we are going to the barn.

Keep still, Jill. Do not fly away.
I can give you a ride if you will keep still.

I have some corn in my pail.

I will feed you at the barn.

I like Jack and Jill, and they like me.

Do you want your breakfast,
Jack?

You shall have it pretty soon.

I must feed the hens now.

My ducks want some breakfast,
too.

Mrs. Căt hēre mīce bārñ

Where are you going, Mrs. Mouse?
I am going to the barn with my little mice.

I think they will like the barn.
Oh no, Mrs. Mouse, do not go to the barn!

Mrs. Cat is in the barn.
She will catch your baby mice.
Oh dear! what shall I do?

Come with me, Mrs. Mouse.
I will feed your little mice.
We have no cat here.

Oh thank you, little girl!
I love my baby mice.
I do not want the cat to get them.

Teacher leads the children to imagine a mouse taking her family up the path to the barn.

pig then had

Do look at this little pig!

I think he is pretty.

My grandpa had four baby pigs.

He let me take one in for mamma to see.

I said, “What do you think I have, mamma?”

“A little dog?” “No, mamma.”

“A little kitty?” “No, mamma;
it is a little pig.”

“What! a little pig here in the house!”

“Yes, mamma, a dear little white pig.”

Then I let mamma see it.

She said it was pretty.

I said, “Do you wish to take it, mamma?”

She didn’t wish to take it.

I gave it a saucer of milk.

Then I took it back to the barn.

It ran to its mamma.

This little pig wants something to eat.

See the hens look at him.

Don’t you like the hens?

They have had some corn.

You shall have some corn, too.

I will get some for you.

Grandpa keeps it in the barn.

Mr. Rōbīn sīng dō-mi-sōl

Mr. Robin has a nest.
The nest is in this tree.
He has three baby robins.
They can not sing.
Mr. Robin wants them to sing.
One day he said, "Come,
my little robins.
I want you to sing.
Come out of your nest."

The little robins said, "No, papa, we can not sing."

"Oh yes, my little robins.

See all the pretty flowers.

Look up at this pretty tree.

Then you will wish to sing.

I will sing 'do-mi-sol-do.'

You sing it now for me."

One little robin did sing it.

Oh, you dear little robins!

I hope you will all sing soon.

Do not go South, little robins.

Papa will make a pretty house
for you.

Then you will not be cold.

You may have it in this tree.

I shall love to have you here.

I will feed you, little robins.

cheese why know mind trap

Mamma said not to go to that box.

Why did she say that?

I do not know. Mamma knows.

I see some cheese in the box.

I want some of that cheese.

Could a cat be in the box?

Oh no, the cat is too big.

I know that cheese is good.

I must have some of it.

No, don't take any.

You must mind mamma.

I am a big mouse now.

I know the box can not catch me.

I can run. I can get away.

The box can not run.

Please mind your mamma.

Come with me to her.

We will ask her what it is.

Mamma, we saw some good cheese in a box.

May we get some of that cheese?

Oh no, my little mice.

Why not? That cheese is good.

That box is a mouse-trap.

A trap is to catch little mice.

You see mamma knows best.

Kāte pīctūre drēss whēn rōom

This is a picture of Kate.

She gave it to me.

I am going to put it in my room.

Isn't Kate a dear little girl?

I play with her all the time.

See her pretty white dress.

Mamma has a picture of me when I was a little baby.

I have a white dress on.

I have three pictures in my room.

One is a picture of the woods.

Papa gave it to me on my birthday.

I like to look at it.

I can see it when I wake up.

I have a picture of a boat.

A girl and boy are in the boat.

The boat is in the water.

The little girl is asleep.

The boy is awake. He is looking for some one to come.

I think he wants his papa.

There are some flowers in the other picture.

Do you like to look at pictures?

We have some in our school room.

ACTION LESSON.

To be read silently and direction followed.

1. You may put your book on the table.
2. You may get me a cup.
3. You may get some water in the cup.
4. You may drink the water.
5. You may get me a big box.
6. You may get me a little box.
7. You may put the little box on the big box.
8. You may get me a big book.
9. You may get a picture for me.
10. You may let me see your slate.
11. You may wash your slate.
12. You may put some water on the flowers.

13. Put your book in the box.
 14. Put the cup on the table.
 15. Make a picture on your slate.
-

five seven six eight

Five birds and two birds are — birds.

Three roses and — roses are seven roses.

Six robins and — robins are eight robins.

Four mice and four mice are — mice.

One doll and seven dolls are — dolls.

Five doves and — doves are eight doves.

fiēld dāisies dāisy būttērcŭps

Oh, what a pretty field!

I see some flowers.

I must get some of them.

Oh, see the buttercups!

I see some daisies, too.

Come, Grace, we must have some.

I wish to take them to school.

Isn't this a pretty field?

You dear little daisies!

I must put you in my hat.
Put some in your hat, too, Grace.
Now we must run to school.
I wish to be in time.
I shall ask if we may sing, "Buttercups and daisies."
I can sing, "Wake up, little daisy."
You have all been asleep, little flowers.
We are glad to see you.
Are you glad to be awake?
The birds have been down South.
Now they have come back to us.
I know the birds love the flowers.
One bird has a nest in this field.
Five eggs are in the nest.
We have not time to see it now.

SOMETHING TO ANSWER.

1. Can you sing?
2. What can you sing?
3. What flowers do you like?
4. Where can you get any flowers?
5. Has your papa a garden?
6. What has he in his garden?
7. What have you to play with?
8. What do you like to play?
9. What school do you go to?
10. What time do you go to school?
11. What do you sing in school?
12. What do you like to play?
13. Why do you go to school?
14. What can you find in the woods?

bütterflies cätërpillars hürt dänce

Once wings

We are butterflies. We live out in the fields.

We fly to all the flowers.

The daisies are so pretty.

We love to play where they are.

They nod and dance with us.

They rock us to sleep at night.
Once we were caterpillars.
We could not dance and fly.
We had a long sleep.
One day we woke up.
We had wings and could fly.

The butterflies sleep in the pretty flowers.
Do not hurt any caterpillars.
They will be butterflies some day.
Then they will fly in the fields.
Please do not catch the butterflies.
You will hurt their pretty wings.
They are not made to catch.
They love to fly in the garden.
Dance away, pretty butterflies.
We love to see you fly.

other stars snōw thēse

These are little snow stars.

Did you ever see any?

You can find them if you look.

See how pretty they are.

The snow is made of these little stars.

The pretty stars come flying down.

You can find other stars, too.
When the snow comes you must look for the stars.

I found some the other day.
The fields are white with them.
I think it is time for them now.
The birds have all gone South
No, not all the birds.

The snow birds are not gone.
They do not mind the snow.
We must feed the snow birds.
What do they like?

I think they like some cake.
Poor little birds! you shall have some cake.

Mamma will give me some for you.

I hope you are not cold.

slĕd bŭt sō shōw feathers

Oh, look at the snow! Isn't it pretty?

I must get my sled out.

Did baby ever see the snow,
mamma?

I think so; but she was too little to look at it.

I must show it to her.

Baby dear, come here!

What do you see?

I see pretty white feathers.

No, baby, it is snow.

I will take you out in my sled.

There, baby, catch some snow.

Oh, the pretty snow! I want some for mamma.

No, baby, you can't take it to mamma.

I will give you a ride on my sled.

Isn't this fun? The snow is cold.

Are you cold, baby? Oh no!

We will go to see Grandma.

We will show her the pretty snow.

You can tell her you saw the feathers come flying down.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Stickney's Readers.

INTRODUCTORY TO CLASSICS FOR CHILDREN

By J. H. STICKNEY.

Author of "Word by Word," "The Child's Book of Language," "Letters and Lessons in Language," etc.

A series of attractive, studied, and thoroughly tested reading-books, combining, in an unusual degree, exceptional literary merit and marked originality with the most rational and practical methods. The books are full of life throughout, and free from mechanical dullness.

- A FIRST READER. Introduction price, 24 cents; allowance for old book, 5 cents.
A SECOND READER. Introduction price, 32 cents; allowance for old book, 8 cents.
A THIRD READER. Introduction price, 40 cents; allowance for old book, 10 cents.
A FOURTH READER. Introduction price, 50 cents; allowance for old book, 10 cents.
A FIFTH READER. Introduction price, 60 cents; allowance for old book, 12 cents.

Auxiliary Readers. — FIRST WEEKS AT SCHOOL. 12 cents.

THE CLASSIC PRIMER. 20 cents; allowance, 5 cents.

~~~~~
THE editor aimed at positive excellence, and not simply to make a series so characterless that no one, however unreasonable or ill-informed, could discover a feature definite enough to find fault with.
~~~~~

SELECTED OPINIONS.

Not an uninteresting line in them.

It gives me great pleasure to cordially and heartily recommend the Stickney Readers. There is not an uninteresting line in the whole series. Everything is carefully selected. The reading is adapted to children. — FRANCIS W. PARKER, Prin. of Normal School, Normal Park, Ill.

The plan of the series is right.

I like the plan of the books, the gradation of work, the excellent illustrations, and the clear type. They give evidence of having been prepared by one who understands the needs of the schools. — SARAH L. ARNOLD, Supervisor of Primary Work, Minneapolis.

The children uniformly interested.

One of their most striking merits, as witnessed by their use in the schoolroom, is the uniform interest manifested by children in the well selected and well graded matter which they contain. The author evidently sympathized with child life and thought in a manner which enabled her to furnish attractive motives to the pupil in larger measure than is furnished by any other school readers with which I am familiar. — HENRY D. HATCH, Prin. of Brainard Grammar School, Chicago, Ill.

A great improvement on the usual type of readers.

I especially commend them for the freshness of the exercises, their adaptability to the purposes intended, and the general plan which prevails throughout. I consider these books a great improvement on the usual type of books designed for school readers. — GEORGE L. OSBORNE, Pres. of State Normal School, Warrensburg, Mo.

A comprehensive description.

An excellent series. — S. T. DUTTON, Supt. of Schools, Brookline, Mass.

1. They are based on the right idea of what a reading-book should be.
2. They secure the best results at the least expense of time and effort.
3. It is their distinct aim to inculcate a love of reading, and so give not only the key to all knowledge, but the desire to use it.
4. They are the fruit of many years of most successful experience, and, while original in many features, are always rational and practical.
5. Though it has long been understood that a series of readers must regard quantity as well as quality, this series was the first to supply reading-matter enough, and has few competitors even now. STICKNEY'S READERS do not involve the additional expense of a supplementary series; they are consequently cheaper than any others.
6. Solely on their merits they were introduced, even before the completion of the series, by such cities as New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington, Boston, Cambridge, and Lowell.

~~~~~

GIVE the children a chance at these Readers. They are the ones most interested. Ought we not to consult their tastes, which mean their capacities? Their verdict is always for Stickney.

~~~~~

The best for school reading.

I can cheerfully say that I consider them the best school readers I have ever seen. — THOMAS W. HART, County Supt. of Schools, Vandavia, Ill.

Thoroughly pleased with them.

I am thoroughly pleased with them, and shall order sets of them for our Model School for next year. — IRWIN SHEPARD, Pres. of State Normal School, Winona, Minn.

Never before so completely won.

We need only say, in addition to the testimony of use, that we were never so completely won to the merits of any former series. The feature of connected thought and interest has never before received so admirable a setting. We ask for nothing better than these three, and trust succeeding numbers will complete the good work begun in these. — G. S. ALBEE, Pres. of State Normal School, Oshkosh, Wis.

Find favor with teachers and pupils.

They have found favor with our teachers and pupils from the first. To me the books seem to be just what the gifted author intended them to be, — as natural and beautiful as childhood itself. They deserve the greatest success. — A. R. SABIN, Assistant Supt., Chicago, Ill.

Full of bright and wholesome matter.

They are delightful books, well planned, judiciously graded, and filled with clean, bright, and wholesome reading-matter. — CHARLES C. SNYDER, Supt. of Public Schools, Freeport, Ill.

There is a fine tone in them.

It [The First Reader] is beautiful. There is a fine tone running through it. It contains nothing to pervert a child, mentally or morally. — E. S. ATKINSON, recently Prin. of Normal Training School, Washington, D.C.

brō' ken sō' ber

sē' cret sea' -shore shēlls

frēsh fault mounds soft' ly

One, two, three, four, broken clothes-pins in Benny Blake's garden.

"What are they for?" I asked.

Benny looked sober. "I put them there, auntie," he said.

"What for, dear?"

These books are, first of all, readers. As preparatory readers, leading to a classic series, they carry pupils over the rudiments of reading by paths which, all the while, cultivate literary taste and the love of reading.

The aim of the manual of arithmetic is to teach arithmetic, and develop the taste for mathematics; the aim of the reading-book is to create good readers, and increase the power and pleasure of gaining knowledge and culture from books.

The proper work of a reader is quite enough for the reading-book to carry.

History, geography, ethics, natural science, and natural history may wisely adopt the style of readers; but selections from them are unsuitable for a general literary reader, unless they also possess literary merit. As ordinarily presented in lower grades, they are inferior to the remainder of the reader in style, and a weight upon its interest. The literary taste must first be enlisted, then elevated, cultivated, and employed; consequently, reading of genuine literary quality is indispensable for the school work.

~~~~~
GOOD reading would not be good if it did not appeal to what is good in us; and the lessons in Stickney's Readers, without "moralizing," carry moral influence in warp and woof. ~~~~~

As reading-books, they are the best.

I must pronounce them the readers par excellence. While others rival them, perhaps, as products of the book-maker's and printer's art, I think they surpass all in the selection, arrangement, and presentation of subject-matter. They afford abundant and appropriate reading for the several grades, and are admirably introductory to a judicious arrangement of general classical reading from thence on through the high school. — M. H. LEWIS, Supt. of Schools, Circleville, O.

A combination of superior qualities.

I regard Stickney's Series of Readers as among the very best I have ever seen. In a peculiar sense, as I know from experience, they are interesting, by reason of the excellent judgment shown in the choice of material and its arrangement, and the abridgment of difficulties in the text. The mechanical execution of the books; the suggestions and directions accompanying the text; the plan of presenting selections for reading, in themselves complete and sufficiently extended; the character of the selections, so well designed to create and maintain the interest of children, and, at the same time, to acquaint and familiarize them with the best specimens of literary style—combine to produce, in my judgment, a series of readers worthy of the attention of every one engaged in the education of children. — F. TREUDLEY, Supt. of Schools, Youngstown, O.

The best published.

I am much pleased with them. . . . I regard these readers as the best published. — CHARLES V. PARKER, Supt. of North Denver Schools, Denver, Colo.

Good all the way through.

They seem to be thoroughly good books. — E. H. RUSSELL, Prin. of State Normal School, Worcester, Mass.

The maximum rate of progress in learning to read is secured by the use of bright, spirited, narrative prose, in conversational style, and the ballad and lyric poetry, in which our literature is so rich.

By presenting, from the start, selections of such interest that the pupils are stimulated to wish to get on, and by improved methods for the use of this material, mastery of the mechanical elements of reading is made more firm and rapid than has hitherto been deemed possible. Time is actually saved; and, what contributes to the same result, the pupil is practised in real reading, and not merely in something selected or adapted to make the lessons pass off plausibly. Learners are thus prepared for the reading of standard books.

~~~~~
THE vitality of methods and selections preserves the children's natural vivacity of thought and expression.
 ~~~~~

Made to teach reading.

I am greatly pleased with them, for the following reasons: They seem to be prepared for reading, and not for the frittering away of time; they are well graded; the reading-matter is of great interest, and has real merit as literature; the amount of reading will delight the hearts of teachers and children; the suggestions to teachers are excellent. — O. T. BRIGHT, Supt. of Public Schools, Englewood, Ill.

A splendid affair.

The Second Reader is a splendid affair every way. — L. W. DAY, Supt. of Schools, Cleveland, O.

They entice the children to read.

We find the greatest charm of this series of readers to be the enticement of leading children to read more and more. It seems almost impossible to lay one of these books down until it is finished. — EDUCATIONAL COURANT, Louisville, Ky.

Entitled to the heartiest endorsement.

I have examined them with great interest, and am prepared to give them my heartiest endorsement. — W. S. EVERSOLE, Supt. of Schools, Wooster, O.

Attractive, fresh, and practical.

Attractive in style, fresh in matter, and practical in method of instruction, they deserve high rank among the school readers of to-day. The cheerful and sunny atmosphere, so necessary for proper teaching of the "little folks," ought to be a much easier matter with the introduction of Stickney's Readers into the primary grades. — W. M. STRAUSS, Supt. of Schools, Parkersburg, W. Va.

They arouse an interest in good reading.

Their use would prove most beneficial in arousing an interest in good reading, and in securing ready and intelligent expression. — J. M. SMITH, Supt. of Schools, Danbury, Conn.

The selections are wholesome in tone, and well written. They compass, in great variety, the different fields of learning, thus introducing among children's employments and recreations a taste for standard literature; and they present, for the most part, authors of note whose other writings are worthy of study.

It is the endeavor of the editor to spoil the taste for what is frivolous, or otherwise objectionable, in current reading, by creating familiarity with what is unexceptionable, and by teaching insensibly lessons of good taste and right feeling.

The editor has carefully avoided giving this series of Readers any marked bias, except the literary one inseparable from good reading-material. But good reading would not be good if it did not appeal to what is good in us; and it is by no accident that the lessons carry, in warp and woof, some of the highest and most pervasive of influences. We appeal to all who respect children's healthy tastes, whether such influences are not more sure to be operative than lessons whose chief merit is their obvious effort to teach morals.

~~~~~

BEST in idea and plan; best in matter and make; best in interest and results.

~~~~~

Subject-matter selected with great judgment.

The series seems well graded; the subject-matter has been selected with great judgment, and the mechanical execution of the work is, throughout, all that can be desired. — W. W. PARSONS, Pres. of Indiana State Normal School, Terre Haute, Ind.

Free from senseless repetitions.

The ordinary First Reader has always had for me the same baleful fascination — it must have even more for the children — that Mark Twain found in the horse-car jingle, because of the senseless repetition seemingly indigenous to its soil. In the Stickney Reader this weird power is entirely absent, without any loss, it seems to me, of efficiency in drill. The beauty of the book, the variety and interest of the exercises, and the helpful suggestions to teachers embodied in it, combine to make an excellent first reader. A mature critic of seven, whom I borrowed for experimental purposes, proclaims it "as nice as my Christmas story books; nearly as pretty as my Noah's ark!" And what more could you ask? — A. L. WYETH, Critic Teacher in Public Schools, Terre Haute, Ind.

Children are delighted.

Our children are delighted with the stories. I have only praise to offer. — H. N. MERTZ, Supt. of Schools, Steubenville, O.

New features well wrought out.

I think the books have real merit in presenting some features quite new and well wrought out. — GEORGE A. WALTON, Agent of the Massachusetts Board of Education.

Happily adapted to children.

I have examined Stickney's First and Second Readers. I am very much pleased with them. They are beautiful books, and happily adapted to children of the grade for which they are prepared. — E. A. SHELDON, Prin. of State Normal School, Oswego, N. Y.

Each volume contains selections for memorizing, the so-called "Memory Gems"; and the series, as a whole, includes a more full and comprehensive collection of literary specimens than is to be gathered from any other.

Penmanship. The examples of script are the best that could be obtained in the country. Under the titles of "How Vio learned to Write," in the Second Reader, and "Tales out of School," in the higher ones, a series of lessons covers all the ordinary uses and needs of penmanship.

Attention is called to a feature common to all other lines of study, but new to readers. It is the use of reading reviews in the Fourth Reader. After a few lessons have been read, the time of a recitation is given to a retrospect which calls out passages for practice in expression and the various forms of voice-training. This is believed to be much more natural than the methods usually pursued.

~~~~~
THIS is almost the only series that contains a sufficient quantity of reading-matter; and there is no padding.
 ~~~~~

Primary numbers especially good.

I am very much pleased with the readers so far, especially the Primary numbers. — L. L. CAMP, Prin. of Dwight School, New Haven, Conn.

Uses the lower books; will introduce the others.

I am already using the First Reader in my schools, and shall introduce the higher numbers into the upper grades next term. I am very much pleased with the books. — F. F. BARROWS, Prin. of Brown Grammar School, Hartford, Conn.

The most satisfactory ever used.

Stickney's First Reader is the most satisfactory text-book ever placed in the hands of our primary pupils. — E. MACHEY, Supt. of Schools, Butler, Pa.

Exceedingly interesting to children.

It is one of the best series of readers yet published, — natural in style, well graded, very popular with teachers, and exceedingly interesting to children. The author understands children, and how to make a book adapted to their need. The public are under great obligation for this contribution to our list of available good reading. — E. H. DAVIS, Supt. of Schools, Chelsea, Mass.

They stand the test of class use.

I know of no readers that surpass the Stickney. I have used the Third in my training school, and find it stands the test for class use. — A. H. CAMPBELL, Prin. of State Normal School, Johnson, Vt.

They are the favorite series.

Stickney's readers are our favorite. — E. N. COLEMAN, Supt. of Schools, Missouri Valley, Ia.

They are the best.

I have no hesitation in saying that they are the best I have ever seen; and I shall recommend them to all my teacher friends. — J. T. MURFEE, Supt. of Military Institute, Marion, Ala.

Occasional songs, in the lower books, make a pleasing variety, and help to show the connection between the pleasant rendering of a song and of a story, in both of which the expression of thought and feeling should be the ruling idea.

The main reliance for language culture is the superiority of the models presented and the livingness of the style of reading. But, in addition, each lesson is followed by language exercise growing naturally out of it; and words newly introduced, or less familiar than others, are placed at the head of each lesson, for exercise in pronunciation, enunciation, spelling, or writing. In the higher books, words and idioms are defined in simple language, according to their use in the lesson.

The editor has sought to find the golden mean between the work of the supplementary reader and that excess of analysis and definition which robs really fine passages of their charm, and often permanently destroys the impression they would otherwise make. The need of great discrimination at this point is recognized by thoughtful teachers.

~~~~~
THESE books are, first of all, readers. This main purpose is not sacrificed in order to get in all sorts of "features" to entrap the unwary.
~~~~~

FIRST WEEKS AT SCHOOL. Occupation, Recreation, and Instruction. By J. H. STICKNEY, author of Reading and Language Series, and S. C. PEABODY, Teacher in First Grade Primary School. Sq. 12mo. Profusely illustrated. 48 pages, including 8 full-page colored pictures. Flexible covers. Mailing price, 14 cents; for introduction, 12 cents.

This little book is designed to precede any Primer. It covers the teaching of six or eight weeks. The present custom of holding children to the teaching of blackboard and chart is believed to be unwise and physically injurious.

STICKNEY'S CLASSIC PRIMER. Sq. 12mo. 94 pages. Illustrated. Boards. Mailing price, 24 cents; for introduction, 20 cents; allowance for old book, 5 cents.

The lessons are based upon stories already familiar to the children or easily learned by rote. It thus begins not with the letter or word or even sentence, but with a story, and consists essentially in leading children to recognize in printed form, with the aid of pictures, what they are already familiar with and interested in.

~~~~~
Remember that Stickney's Readers are published by Ginn & Company.
~~~~~

OPEN SESAME.

About One Thousand Pieces of the Choicest Prose and Verse. Compiled by BLANCHE WILDER BELLAMY and MAUD WILDER GOODWIN. VOL. I., for children from four to ten years old; VOL. II., for children from ten to fourteen years old; VOL. III., for children of a larger growth. Sq. 12mo. About 350 pages each. Illustrated, and handsomely bound in cloth. Price of each to teachers and for introduction, 75 cents.

Among the many collections of choice extracts, this is distinguished for its comprehensiveness, the care and skill with which the work has been done, the gradation of the pieces, their topical arrangement, and the mechanical excellence of the volumes, — clear, large type, fine illustrations, and handsome binding. The book is representative of English literature, and also comprises many translations. The familiar classics will be found here, and also extracts from recent literature. The purpose is to train the memory, educate the literary taste, and supply the student with the long-needed standard collection, — such a collection as others have tried to make.

~~~~~
NO Eastern romancer ever dreamed of such a treasure-house as our English literature.
 ~~~~~

[A specimen of the typography of Open Sesame.]

And when, in far times and strange lands, scald and scop shall praise the brave man for some valiant deed, wrought in some holy cause, they shall say: "He was brave as those who fought by the side of Harold, and swept from the sward of England the host of the haughty Norman!"

—o—

SIR GALAHAD.

ALFRED TENNYSON.

My good blade carves the casques of men,
 My tough lance thrusteth sure,
 My strength is as the strength of ten,
 Because my heart is pure.

A MINSTREL. CARPACCIO. VENICE.

The greatest authors are childlike at heart; and the very best things for children are to be found in their writings.

Among the authors represented in the first volume, for example, are Leigh Hunt, Coleridge, Robert Browning, Præd, Shakespeare, Swinburne, Burns, Southey, Swift, Dobson, Tennyson, Mary Howitt, Hood, Mrs. Browning, Rossetti, Keble, Whittier, Æsop, Dickens, Keats, Emerson, Goldsmith, Heber, Florian, Kingsley, Ruskin, Dryden, Matthew Arnold, Lowell, Henry Ward Beecher, Charlotte Brontë, Victor Hugo, Marcus Aurelius, Longfellow, Walter Scott, Charles Lamb, Robert Herrick, Wordsworth, Carlyle, Cowper, Gay, Luther, Moore, Jonson, Thackeray, Ingelow, Bryant, Franklin, Schiller, Hemans, Jane Taylor, Muloch, Trench, Lord Houghton, N. P. Willis, William Blake, Stoddard, Buchanan, Elizabeth Prentiss, Riley, S. F. Smith, George Macdonald, Allingham, Addison, Aldrich, Stevenson, James Hogg.

~~~~~
WITH this Open Sesame in his possession, a boy or girl has only to enter, and make the wealth of our literature his own. Every piece is believed to be worth carrying away in the memory.
 ~~~~~

They are just what they aimed to be.

The three volumes are very judiciously and beautifully made up, externally and internally; great taste and culture are displayed in the selections, and the books are true to their name as regards English poetry; they will certainly cultivate a love for good verse and pure sentiment wherever they go. They would form an appropriate part of any school library, and be a valuable addition to our supplementary reading. — LOUISA P. HOPKINS, Supervisor of Schools, Boston.

Wonderfully cheap.

It seems astonishing that publishers can offer such a volume as this, so admirable in presswork, paper, binding, etc., at so low a price. — NEW YORK SCHOOL JOURNAL.

Several points of excellence.

They are admirably gotten up. The selections are excellent. The editors have shown great literary judgment. The publishers have exhibited their usual good taste in the make-up of the books. — A. B. POLAND, Supt. of Schools, Jersey City, N. J.

They exhibit fine taste and good judgment.

The work of selection and arrangement of materials in these books has been done with fine taste and good judgment. — H. O. WHEELER, Supt. of Schools, Burlington, Vt.

Not only of high character, but of a practicable sort.

The editors have brought to their task a sufficiently wide and sympathetic knowledge of English and American verse, and have also wisely considered the real needs and tastes of children. . . . The collection is at once of a high character and of a practicable sort; and its usefulness is increased by clear typography, and a few newly engraved woodcuts from masterpieces of art. — SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES.

Pith and marrow characterize the selections. It is the very best and richest literature of all time, that one finds here.

Among the authors represented in the third volume are Shelley, Edwin Arnold, Tennyson, Dryden, Schiller, Carlyle, Hood, Spenser, Sterne, Drayton, Dumas, Castelar, Cicero, Addison, Burlingame, Byron, George Eliot, Dickens, Wordsworth, Lamb, Longfellow, Lowell, Thackeray, Chateaubriand, Rossetti, Beecher, Homer, Milton, Matthew Arnold, Emerson, Gray, Gautier, Moore, Whittier, Beaumont and Fletcher, Thucydides, Savonarola, Bright, Mrs. Browning, Shakespeare,

Robert Browning, Victor Hugo, Collins, Walter Scott, Burke, Edward Everett, Macaulay, Seward, Sumner, Chaucer, Ruskin, Milton, Hooker, Johnson, Holmes, Huxley, Webster, Sheridan, Whitman, Theodore Parker, Richter, Swinburne, Keats, Chatham, Demosthenes, Raleigh, Jeremy Taylor, Bonaparte, Abraham Lincoln, Cervantes, Bacon, Bryant, Herrick, Pope, Herbert, Lanier, Plato.

~~~~~
THE best writings of our classic authors are here, with selections from recent literature, and not a few translations.
 ~~~~~

A delight to the heart as well as to the eye.

The Open Sesame series is a delight to the heart; the several books are gems of the first literature, to influence the mind and heart of childhood. — J. H. HOOSE, Prin. of State Normal and Training School, Cortland, N. Y.

Superior to any previous collection.

I have read these books with great satisfaction and delight. So thorough a sifting of English literature and so wise a selection of the gems, I believe, has not previously been made. We shall welcome these books in our school — as other schools, I am sure, will welcome them — for the power they have to awaken in the young an appetite for good reading, and to inspire them with a wholesome literary taste. — ALBERT C. PERKINS, Prin. of Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Literature of the very finest and highest quality.

It is very pleasant to find one's self, in this volume, in the presence of the greatest writers, and occupied almost exclusively with literary work of the very finest and highest quality. — THE CHRISTIAN UNION.

Remember that the Open Sesame series is published by Ginn & Co.

Classics for Children.

---

ÆSOP'S FABLES: A Child's Version, with a Supplement, containing Fables from La Fontaine and Krilof. By J. H. Stickney. 12mo. 204 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A simple version of the immortal fables of Æsop, which draw helpful moral lessons from the imagined actions and words of animals.

HANS ANDERSEN'S FAIRY TALES. Edited by J. H. Stickney. First Series. 280 pages. 12mo. Illustrated. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Second Series. Edited by J. H. Stickney. 12mo. 346 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A convenient and well-arranged edition of these most famous fairy tales, in which the animal kingdom and the inanimate world are drawn upon for the most wholesome lessons.

THE KING OF THE GOLDEN RIVER; or, The Black Brothers: A Legend of Stiria. By JOHN RUSKIN. 12mo. 53 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 20 cents; cloth, 25 cents.

An interesting fairy tale, teaching some excellent lessons of life, and written in John Ruskin's admirable style.

~~~~~
ENDORSED by teachers, superintendents, librarians, eminent literary authorities, and the educational press.
~~~~~

Only one pupil out of twenty-five ever goes beyond the grammar school. The remaining twenty-four ought, in these days, to acquire in the grammar school a taste for good literature and a habit of gathering ideas from books.

The series of Classics for Children aims to meet this difficulty.

It has been found that children in the ordinary grammar schools are capable of understanding and appreciating the best authors, like Scott, Irving, and even Shakespeare. This is not an arbitrary opinion; it is the conclusion from many experiments.

The series of Classics for Children is now complete through all the grades, includes reading of all sorts, and is adapted for use in connection with any reader from the third up.

THE WATER BABIES: A Fairy Tale for a Land Baby. By Rev. CHARLES KINGSLEY. Edited by J. H. Stickney. 12mo. 192 pages. Illus. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

An interesting and instructive fairy tale for young folks, written in a charming style, and introducing not a few wholesome lessons, and no little scientific information.

THE SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON. By WYSS and MONTOLIEU. Edited by J. H. Stickney. 12mo. 364 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

One of the classics of adventure, giving an account of the imagined doings of a family cast on an out-of-the-way island. It is full of information, and of stimulus to self-reliance and noble character.

TOM BROWN AT RUGBY By an Old Boy (THOMAS HUGHES). Edited by Clara Weaver Robinson. 12mo. 387 pages. Boards, 50 cents; cloth, 60 cents.

A good edition of the classic of school-boy life, possibly the greatest of books for boys, with its vivid presentation of scenes and experiences at the great English school, and its introduction of Dr. Arnold.

LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF ROBINSON CRUSOE. By DANIEL DEFOE. Edited by W. H. Lambert. 12mo. 257 pages. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Every one is expected to be acquainted with Robinson Crusoe.

~~~~~
 CHILDREN derive impulses of a wonderful and important kind from hearing things that they cannot entirely comprehend. — Sir Walter Scott.
 ~~~~~

It is now some seven or eight years since we began publishing the Classics for Children; and the enterprise, which at first seemed a novel one, may fairly be said to have passed the stage of experiment.

It has been the aim to present the best and most suitable literature in our language in as complete a form as possible; and in most cases but few omissions have been found necessary. Whether judged from the literary, the ethical, or the educational standpoint, each of the books has attained the rank of a masterpiece.

The series places within reach of all schools an abundant supply of supplementary reading-matter. This is its most obvious merit.

It is reading-matter, too, which, by the force of its own interest and excellence, will do much, when fairly set in competition, to displace the trashy and even harmful literature so widely current.

It is believed, also, that constant dwelling upon such models of simple, pure, idiomatic English is the easiest, and on all accounts the best, way for children to acquire a mastery of their mother-tongue. No remark need be made on the importance of presenting these models while habits of expression are forming.

THE ARABIAN NIGHTS: A Selection of Stories from Alif Laila, Wa Laila, The Arabian Nights' Entertainment. Selected and Edited by Rev. Edward E. Hale, D.D. 12mo. 366 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A collection of some of the finest and best-known of these classic tales, edited by a literary man of high standing.

GREEK HEROES; or, Greek Fairy Tales for My Children. By CHARLES KINGSLEY. With the Author's Illustrations. Edited by John Tetlow. 12mo. 167 pages. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

One of the most charming of the books that reproduce the old Grecian stories, so full of life and literary worth.

TALES OF A GRANDFATHER: Being the History of Scotland from the Earliest Period to the Close of the Reign of James the Fifth. By SIR WALTER SCOTT. Abridged and Edited by Edwin Ginn. 12mo. 286 pages. Bds., 40 cts; clo. 50 cts.

One of the very best historical books for young folks.

THE PEASANT AND THE PRINCE: A Story of the French Revolution. By HARRIET MARTINEAU. 12mo. 210 pages. Illustrated. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

It gives, in pleasing story form, a good idea of the stormy scenes of the French Revolution and the causes that led to them.

~~~~~
 [N forming the mind and tastes of the young, is it not better to use authors who have already lived long enough to afford some guarantee that they may survive the next twenty years?
 ~~~~~

A large portion of the course has been devoted to history and biography, as it has seemed specially desirable to supplement the brief, unsatisfactory outlines of history with full and life-like readings.

The annotation has been done with modesty and reserve, the editors having aimed to let the readers come into direct acquaintance with the author.

The books are all printed on good paper, and are durably and attractively bound in 12mo. A distinctive feature is the large, clear type. Illustrations have been freely used, when thought desirable. The prices are as low as possible. It has been felt that nothing would be gained by making the books a little cheaper at the expense of crowding the page with fine type and issuing them in a style that would neither attract nor last.

The best proof of the need of such a course is the universal approbation with which it has been received.

This series of books deserves a place in every American school. — THE JOURNAL OF EDUCATION, Boston.

THE ADVENTURES OF ULYSSES. By CHARLES LAMB. 12mo. 109 pages. Boards, 25 cents; cloth, 35 cents.

A classic story retold by one of the masters of English prose.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN. His Life, written by Himself. Edited, with a continuation of his life, by D. H. Montgomery. 12mo. 311 pages. With portrait of Franklin. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A work of the greatest interest and value, — wise precepts illustrated by the life of a great man.

GULLIVER'S TRAVELS: A Voyage to Lilliput; A Voyage to Brobdingnag. By JONATHAN SWIFT. 12mo. 159 pages. Boards, 30 cents; cloth, 40 cents.

The two most interesting portions of Swift's great satirical story. The style is the finest in the language for directness and force.

STORIES OF THE OLD WORLD. By Rev. ALFRED J. CHURCH. 12mo. 354 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

The most famous classical stories, which all should know.

TALES FROM SHAKESPEARE. By CHARLES and MARY LAMB. 12mo. 310 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

This is the best introduction to Shakespeare.

~~~~~
GIVE the children the best books. Which are the best?
 Those which generations of readers have endorsed.
 Such are to be found in this series.
 ~~~~~

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Nov. 29, 1889.

The Columbus School Board has undertaken to cultivate a taste for good reading in the grammar and higher primary grades of the public schools by adopting for supplementary reading in each of these grades some small but choice book of real literary merit, and requiring the pupils to read it and give some account of it. The two higher primary grades have "Æsop's Fables" and "Robinson Crusoe"; the four grammar grades read, respectively, Montgomery's "Life of Franklin," Church's "Stories of the Old World," Irving's "Sketch-Book," and Scott's "Lady of the Lake." Each pupil who passes through the grammar school will therefore have had in his hand at least six good books, and will know something about them. It seems to me that this list is well selected, and that the benefit of such a short course of reading as this may be very great. Plenty of trash finds its way into the hands of these boys and girls; how many of them there are who would never, but for some such requirement as this, make the acquaintance of any good book! If they can be taught to perceive the beauties of these English classics, to relish the great humor of Irving, and to find pleasure in the sound manliness of Scott, many of them may be saved from the mental debauchery which tempts them from the news stands.

REV. WASHINGTON GLADDEN, D.D.

PLUTARCH'S LIVES. Clough's translation. Edited by Edwin Ginn, with Historical Introduction by Prof. W. F. Allen. 12mo. 333 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Plutarch's Lives of distinguished Greeks and Romans is one of the world's classics. This edition gives, in addition to Clough's Life of Plutarch, the best seven biographies.

IVANHOE: A Romance. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited, with Introduction, by Charlotte M. Yonge. 12mo. 536 pages. Boards, 60 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

This, one of the great works of fiction, is of historical value for its graphic pictures of the Saxons and Normans in England after the Norman occupation of the land, and its side references to the Crusades.

THE TALISMAN. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited by Dwight Holbrook, with a Preface by Charlotte M. Yonge. 12mo. 453 pages. Boards, 50 cents; cloth, 60 cents.

This great novel gives a more graphic picture of the Crusades than can be found elsewhere.

QUENTIN DURWARD. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited, with an Historical Introduction, by Charlotte M. Yonge. 12mo. 312 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Especially valuable for its vivid account of Louis XI. of France and his relations with Charles the Bold of Burgundy.

~~~~~
 CHOICE literature, judicious notes, large type, firm binding, low prices, — to describe is to recommend.
 ~~~~~

Ought to be introduced everywhere.

This series of books ought to be in each school in the land. If loaned to the pupils to read at home, I believe that the children will progress rapidly in their ability to seize the meaning of words in the literary vocabulary, and to use them with skill, besides (what is more important) gaining insight into human life. — WILLIAM T. HARRIS, LL.D., U. S. Commissioner of Education.

Nothing else can fill the place.

These publications seem to me to be of great value, whether regarded as home reading or for use in the public schools. When young people can easily read and take the sense of a printed page, it is quite time for them to begin to understand a book as a whole. This they can be readily taught, but seldom are. . . . These volumes are good of themselves, and seem to me to be admirably edited, and with express reference to a specific purpose. The range of the series is wide enough to cover the usual period of education in our public schools. Reading-books consisting of selections from various authors doubtless are of value, and in some cases may be indispensable; but they can never fill the place of those works in an English literature which, while they are not beyond the comprehension of young people, are models of literary art. — Mellen Chamberlain, recently Librarian of Boston Public Library.

Will certainly do much good.

Judging from these specimen volumes, the works are well selected and well edited, and may be depended on to do much good. — W. D. WHITNEY, Ph.D., Yale College, New Haven, Conn.

Marked by taste, skill, and wisdom.

I have received and have examined with care the Classics for Children. I desire to express my great satisfaction with the taste, skill, and wisdom of the work. I wish it abundant success. — Bishop J. H. VINCENT, Supt. of Instruction, Chautauqua Assembly.

THE LADY OF THE LAKE. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited by Edwin Ginn. 12mo. 219 pages. With a map of the Scottish lake region. Boards, 35 cents; cloth, 50 cents. A well-edited issue of Scott's most popular poem.

THE LAY OF THE LAST MINSTREL: A Poem, in Six Cantos. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited by Margaret A. Allen. 12mo. 139 pages. With a map of Southern Scotland. Boards, 30 cents; cloth, 40 cents.

Graphic pictures of the old border life in its varied phases.

MARMION. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited, with Introduction, by D. H. Montgomery. 12mo. 315 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Nothing is better fitted to interest young readers in literature.

ROB ROY. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. With Introduction by Charlotte M. Yonge. 12mo. 507 pages. Boards, 60 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

Introduces the Highland chieftain Rob Roy and pictures the romantic life in Scotland in the days of the "Old Pretender."

SIX SELECTIONS FROM IRVING'S SKETCH-BOOK. Edited by Homer B. Sprague, Ph.D. 12mo. 119 pages. Boards, 25 cents; cloth, 35 cents.

An edition that is used almost everywhere.

WASHINGTON AND HIS COUNTRY. By IRVING and FISKE. (See page 74.)

~~~~~
 CLASSICS FOR CHILDREN are used (1) as regular readers, (2) as supplementary readers, (3) for home and school libraries.
 ~~~~~

Admirably edited.

It is of the greatest consequence that children should read in school, and in their school-days, books that shall form their taste and inspire them with a love of knowledge. It is shown in these books how this work can be accomplished. They are admirably edited, with just enough of explanatory matter to meet the young reader's need without wearying him. — Rev. A. P. PEABODY, D.D., Cambridge, Mass.

Of the greatest value.

You are doing an inestimable good in supplying this classic literature in a form available for school use even in the poorest towns. — GEORGE H. MARTIN, Agent of the Massachusetts Board of Education.

Uses a few, and would like the rest.

The Classics for Children are in extensive use in our large grammar school, and we are so much pleased with the two which we are reading that we would like to use almost the entire series. This course furnishes the best readers, in my opinion, in use in America. — A. P. MONTAGUE, The Columbian University, Washington, D.C.

Testimony to their practical availability.

I most cheerfully testify to their great merit and superior adaptability as volumes for supplementary reading or for general reading. — W. E. ANDERSON, Supt. of Schools, Milwaukee, Wis.

From a well-known literary man.

Allow me to express hearty sympathy in your plan of Classics for Children, and to say how much I like the specimens that have thus far appeared. — THOMAS WENTWORTH HIGGINSON.

Have never been surpassed.

The Classics for Children I have never seen surpassed. Attractive in form, select, chaste, the books must captivate. — W. F. SLATON, Supt. of Schools, Atlanta, Ga.

GUY MANNERING. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. With Introduction by Charlotte M. Yonge. 12mo. 516 pages. Boards, 60 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

Valuable for its realistic presentation of life in southwestern Scotland in the last century.

THE VICAR OF WAKEFIELD. By OLIVER GOLDSMITH. 12mo. 219 pages. Boards, 30 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A book that every one must read.

SELECTIONS FROM RUSKIN. On Reading and Other Subjects Edited by Edwin Ginn. With a Sketch of Ruskin's Life. 12mo. 146 pages. Bds., 30 cts.; clo., 40 cts.

Representative writings of a great critic and prose master.

RASSELAS, PRINCE OF ABYSSINIA. By SAMUEL JOHNSON, LL.D. 12mo. 157 pages. Boards, 30 cents; cloth, 40 cents.

A famous moral and philosophical tale.

SHAKESPEARE'S MERCHANT OF VENICE. Hudson and Lamb. (Hudson's Introduction and Notes, and Lamb's version of the story.) 12mo. 115 pages. Boards, 25 cents; cloth, 40 cents.

Specially adapted for children by the omission of some portions.

~~~~~
THE series is now so large that every one can find here something suited to his requirements.
~~~~~

A test case.

For the past four years we have used, in the reading-classes of our schools, miscellaneous reading of standard authors, like Kingsley's "Water Babies," Irving's "Alhambra," and similar books, in place of the conventional "readers." The experiment has proved so successful that neither teacher nor scholars would willingly return to the former method. —B. B. SNOW, Superintendent of Public Schools, Auburn, N. Y. (March 9, 1891.)

THE TWO GREAT RETREATS OF HISTORY: I. The Retreat of the Ten Thousand; II. Napoleon's Retreat from Moscow. With Introduction and Notes by D. H. M. 12mo. 318 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Equally valuable as history and as an argument for peace.

HEROIC BALLADS, with Poems of War and Patriotism. Edited with Notes, by D. H. M. 12mo. 319 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A carefully chosen collection of the most stirring and inspiring pieces in the English language.

BUNYAN'S PILGRIM'S PROGRESS. Edited, with Notes and a Life of the Author, by D. H. Montgomery. 12mo. 126 pages. Boards, 30 cents; cloth, 40 cents.

The notes are few and judicious, and Part II. has been omitted.

OLD MORTALITY. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Edited, with Introduction, by D. H. Montgomery. 12mo. 510 pages. Boards, 60 cents; cloth, 75 cents.

A story of the old Covenantan times.

THE ALHAMBRA. By WASHINGTON IRVING. Edited by Alice H. White. 12mo. 291 pages. Boards, 40 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

Another unquestioned classic; not the less interesting to American teachers and pupils because it is the work of an American author.

~~~~~
SOMETHING for the imagination, the reason, and the heart of every boy and girl.
 ~~~~~

Create a taste for good literature.

I am much pleased to learn of this new movement to assist, by such admirable reproductions, in creating a taste for good literature among the public-school children. I hope to hear further of the success of the enterprise. — Hon. JOHN EATON, Pres. of Marietta College, formerly U. S. Commissioner of Education.

From a distinguished orator.

The design and the execution of your Classics for Children seem to me alike excellent. — Hon. ROBERT C. WINTHROP.

A concise description.

The idea underlying these books is meritorious in itself, and its execution admirable. — F. LOUIS SOLDAN, Prin. of Normal School, St. Louis, Mo.

From the public's point of view.

Considering what children read, and who their most popular purveyors are, parents and teachers ought to look upon Messrs. Ginn & Co. as benefactors. — THE DIAL, Chicago.

Must result in immense advantage.

This series gives excellent satisfaction in the schools wherever they have been introduced as supplementary reading. Boys and girls who hitherto could not be induced to read any book, find themselves greatly interested in the books of this series. The series must result in immense advantage to the schools wherever they are introduced. The works and authors chosen are the best in English literature, and the execution is admirable. — COMMON SCHOOL EDUCATION, Boston.

~~~~~
Remember that Classics for Children are published by Ginn & Company.
 ~~~~~

BOOKS FULL OF LIFE AND THOUGHT

WENTWORTH'S ARITHMETICS

Their motto is mastery, their method is Learn to do by doing

MONTGOMERY'S AMERICAN HISTORY

A panorama of the leading facts their causes and their results

STICKNEY'S READERS

Best in idea and plan, best in matter and make best in interest and results

CLASSICS FOR CHILDREN

Choice literature, judicious notes, large type, firm binding, low prices

STICKNEY'S WORD BY WORD

An improved spelling course in two numbers.
conservative and original

ELEMENTARY LESSONS IN ENGLISH

Bright, practical and interesting at every stage of the course

TARBELL'S LESSONS IN LANGUAGE

Expression through written forms made as natural as thought and speech

THE NEW NATIONAL MUSIC COURSE

Studied by more pupils than all other regular courses together

GINN & COMPANY PUBLISHERS